dining out in bali is not a social custom, therefore unless the visitor is invited into a balinese home, or sample festive favourites during a ceremony, he or she is not likely to experience real balinese food.

at bayleaf balinese restaurant, we are proud to welcome chef made (bumbu bali restaurant & cooking school) where together with our bayleaf team, we will entice you with most of the culinary secrets from the island of gods.

special thanks to heinz von holzen – master chef of bumbu bali restaurant & cooking school and respected food writer of the balinese cuisine for providing us with all the assistance and expertise.

to recreate this special cuisine in your home, we do have three cookbooks on sale from heinz von holzen – “feast of flavours from the balinese kitchen”, “feast of flavours from the indonesian kitchen” and “bali unveiled – the secrets of balinese cuisine”.

the basic mix of spices used in all balinese dishes is called bumbu. in bali, rice is the main staple of each meal and contrary to western cuisine, meat, fish or vegetable becomes a side dish.

for you to enjoy a taste of bali, we recommend ordering several main dishes, which we will serve in the center of the table, just as you would do in your home or for a good sampler, definitely try the balinese rijsttafel.
