

WHAT TO SEE & DO IN COOKTOWN

James Cook Museum

James Cook museum is housed on one of Cooktown's Heritage listed buildings, which used to be the Sisters of Mercy Convent school building, built in 1889. It has the original H.M Bark Endeavour anchor and cannon, Cook's diary extracts and stories from throughout the region to give you an idea of what life was like in early Cooktown. Entry - $10 Adults

Cooktown Botanic Gardens

Established in 1878 the Gallop Botanic Reserve encompasses 62.3 Ha (154 acres) on the edge of Cooktown and contains the Cooktown Botanic Gardens and walking trails to Finch Bay and Cherry Tree Bay. Make sure you see the Cooktown Orchid, Queensland's State Flora Emblem. Entry - Free

Nature's Powerhouse

Adjacent to the Cooktown Botanical Gardens, this fantastic environmental center is home to two excellent galleries of Flora and Fauna. View the priceless collection of botanical illustrations, of the late world-renowned artist Vera Scarth-Johnson. The gallery also displays the works of prominent local artists in exhibitions over the course of any given year. Entry - by donation.

Kuku Bulkaway Indigenous Art Gallery

"Telling our Stories"

All of the art works are handcrafted and printed by local artists, many of the paintings come from stories that the artists were taught as children. 142 Charlotte St, Cooktown

Cooktown History Centre

Housed in the oldest building in Charlotte Street, the former post and telegraph office, is your one stop spot for everything related to Cooktown history. The award winning history display showcases regional history through stories, photo's interactive displays, murals and oral histories, The Archive and Research facility has the largest collection of maps, photos and documents pertaining to Cooktown's history. Entry - A small entrance fee applies

Bicentennial Park

See the world famous bronze Captain Cook statue and nearby Milbi Wall which is a 12m long mosaic depicting the history of the local Gungarde (Guugu Yimithirr) people, from creation stories through to attempts at reconciliation. Also view just out in the water, a rock marking the spot where Cook ran aground.

Great Northern Tours

Endeavour Valley, Elim Beach, Isabella Falls, the Coloured Sands. Head out with your local Cooktown guide and enjoy a fantastic scenic tour of contrasting landscapes, beautiful endemic wildflowers and outstanding coastal scenery. Ex Cooktown 5 hours, 2-4 passengers Depart 8:00am $150pp

Cooktown Hotel

Stop and have a drink at the "local watering hole" Cooktown Hotel. This beautiful old weatherboard two storey pub was originally established in 1874. You might hear the locals refer to it as the "Top Pub" as you can find it up the top of the main street.

ABORIGINAL ROCK ART TOUR

ex Cooktown with Nugal-warra Elder, Willie Gordon

On these magical, award winning tours, Aboriginal Elder and story-keeper, Willie Gordon, takes you to his ancestral rock art sites, set in stunning countryside high in the hills outside Cooktown. An estimated 30-minute bushwalk. There is a short climb to 2 of the sites, but generally the terrain is easy. Closed in covered shoes MUST be worn, water provided and cameras are welcome.
